A license is like a token. Once you have one you can move it from one computer to another. But it can only exist on one computer at any given time.

This guide shows you how to transfer the license that exists on one machine (the Source), to another machine (the Target).

Basic Overview

(See page 3 for detailed instructions)

Step 1

Install the TRIAL program on the TARGET - get the license code (if needed)

Step 2

Run the program on the SOURCE - type in the license code from the TARGET (if needed).

You will receive a registration code.

The SOURCE is now converted back to a TRIAL program.

Step 3

Type in the registration code from the SOURCE . The TARGET is now licensed for full use!
